U.S. GOVERNMENT
FACIAL RECOGNITION
LEGAL SERIES – FORUM 4

sponsored by the FBI Biometric Center of Excellence in conjunction with the National Institute of Justice

RECOGNITION
IN PROGRESS

010110101
01101010
0110
0110101101
010110101
0110101010
0110

What Gave Rise to the Series?

(1) Lack of law and policy expressly governing facial recognition technology (FRT)

(2) Public is often misinformed about FRT and its use by the Government

Concerns

Failure to address these two issues will result in:

(1) Violation of fundamental rights, and/or

(2) Inability to most effectively use FRT for law enforcement and national security

Purpose of the Series

✓ Bring federal community together

✓ Initiate dialogue

✓ Explore law and policy

✓ Analyze gaps

✓ Examine privacy and civil liberties concerns

❑ Consider factors of public acceptance

What Has the Series Produced?

2-Pronged Approach to

Vetting FRT Applications:

Law and Policy & Public Perception

What Will the Series Produce?

White Paper

➢ Discuss FR applications across represented mission lanes

➢ Analyze relevant legal authorities in terms of FR

➢ Highlight areas requiring further policy development

➢ Explore public perceptions and their proper role in policy development

➢ Suggest best practices and next steps

What is the Series Not Intended to Produce?

➢Policy

➢Policy development guide

➢Technical issues

Today

➢ Local law enforcement perspective of FRT

➢ Judicial perspective of FRT

➢ Societal perception research

➢ Interplay between FIPPs, public opinion, and privacy/civil liberties issues

➢ Critical next steps